AFRIDU HUMANITARIAN SERVICES

A relief to the vulnerable Race.

INTRODUCTION:

I have seen a couple of documentaries similar to the Facebook video of Coby Persin tagged “White vs. Black Homeless man. (See who gets more help.)”

Where in actual fact, the homeless white man got a lot of help in both cash and kind from passersby but the black man got no help at all. Same was the case in the version that featured a hungry black boy.

Truth be told, Africans are not only vulnerable but discriminated against even in the extension of humanitarian aid. AFRIDU is therefore standing up to the challenge and extending relief through:
